REPUBLICANS TO UNITE STRENGTH FOR FINAL RACE

Tenor of Meeting Held Here Yesterday Is Harmony; Decision Reached To Retain Present Members in Place on State Committee

Harmony in the Republican ranks of Arizona was indicated at a meeting held here yesterday participated in by congressional and state office nominees and party leaders when it was unanimously agreed to recommend the reappointment of present officers of the State Republican committee.

The meeting was attended by Governor Thomas E. Campbell, candidate for re-election; Ralph H. Cameron, nominee for the United States senate; James R. Dimsie, nominee for congress; Allan B. Jaynes, national committeeman for Arizona; Albert M. Simes, Republican state chairman; Andrew Baumert, Jr., secretary; and by presidential electors and candidates for state offices on the Republican ticket.

The recommendations of the conference will be placed before the new state Republican committee which will meet for reorganization at the State Capitol Monday, September 27, in accordance with the state law. The first recommendation as adopted specifically asks for the reappointment of Albert M. Simes of Douglas as chairman, Andrew Baumert, Jr., of Phoenix, as secretary, and W. C. Foster of Phoenix as treasurer.

It was also determined to recommend Mrs. W. W. McNeft of Phoenix as vice chairman of the state committee and for regional vice-chairmen the following were recommended: Mrs. H. A. Guild of Phoenix, Mrs. Kenneth Littlejohn of Tucson, Mrs. Joseph McCabe of Bisbee and Miss Hannah Eggleston of Phoenix.

Open Campaign September 20
W. W. Lewis was recommended as chairman of the bureau of organization. Frank R. Stewart for chairman of the speakers' bureau, Albert M. Simes for chairman of the Republican Club bureau and Allan B. Jaynes as chairman of the publicity bureau.

Governor Campbell announced that he would open the state campaign at Bisbee, September 20, speaking on Tuesday at Douglas, on Wednesday at Nogales, on Thursday at Tucson, on Friday at Casa Grande, on Saturday at Florence, and returning to Phoenix by Monday.

On Monday, September 27, Cameron and Dimsie will open the congressional campaign with a big joint meeting with Governor Campbell at Phoenix, on the occasion of the state committee meeting and party council.

Governor Campbell will then start north on a 30-day trip which will take him to every city, town and village in the state. At the same time Cameron and Dimsie will be busy for the southern part of the state on their congressional campaign of 30 days, which likewise will take in every county and every community in Arizona.

PARIS CLEANERS IN LARGE NEW PLANT

Having installed a new factory and plant for his establishment at the corner of Fifteenth and Van Buren streets, G. J. Mathison, proprietor of the Paris Cleaning works, has announced he is ready to give better and quicker service than ever before.

The new plant contains the equipment of the former plant on Monroe street and in addition has added many pieces of the most modern cleaning and dyeing equipment made. The downtown office will be maintained at the old address on West Monroe street. The new plant is housed in a brick building which has just been completed and will have a much greater capacity than the old one.

BALSZ SCHOOL WILL OPEN TERM MONDAY

The Balasz school will open tomorrow morning with the same force of teachers who held positions last year with the exception of Miss Lillian Linkham, the new principal. Miss Linkham is a graduate of the Bridgewater, Mass., normal school and has had several years experience both as principal and teacher.

The trustees and teachers urge that every child be present tomorrow morning for registration, as a delay is detrimental to the best interests of the pupil.

BACON-WEAVER LAND COMPANY IS FORMED

E. W. Bacon and Leo Weaver have opened offices at 227 West Adams street under the firm name of the Bacon-Weaver Land company. Bacon has been a resident of Phoenix for the past 15 years. He was the original owner of the Apache garage and for the past year has been associated with the Herbert J. Mann Building company as construction foreman. His knowledge of sites and values should prove a valuable asset to the new firm. Leo Weaver is generally identified as an insurance man for Babbitt Bros., where he was in charge of the retail sales room for several years. During that time he built up a wide acquaintance and will bring to the new business the good will of this following.

Because the new firm has affiliated itself with representative firms in neighboring states they will be in a position to handle deals of various sizes and descriptions ranging from the purchase of a lot in Phoenix to the transfer of a large cattle outfit in Texas or the sale of a cotton ranch in the Salt River valley. In addition to such transactions the firm will negotiate loans, arrange leases, handle all kinds of automobile and residential insurance and furnish plans, specifications and estimates for all lines of building.
